The government files this Motion to Correct a Clerical Error in the Judgment and Commitment in the above-referenced case. The motion requests that the incorrect reference to the code section in the judgment and commitment filed on June 20, 2002 be corrected as a clerical error under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 36.

On March 19, 2002 a Superseding Information was filed in the above-referenced case charging the defendant, Jamie Alan Gangwer, with one count of Coercion and Enticement of a Minor to Engage in Illegal Sexual Activity in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422(a) and one count of criminal forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253. The defendant pled guilty pursuant to a plea agreement to the charge on

1 March 26, 2002 and agreed to forfeit all of the property identified
2 in the charging document. He was sentenced by this honorable Court
3 on June 11, 2002 and a Judgment and Commitment was issued on June 20, 4 2002.

5 The Judgment and Commitment contains a clerical error, namely an 6 incorrect reference to the Title and Section of the offense. The 7 document currently references "18 USC 2242" for a coercion and 8 enticement charge when it should read "18 USC 2422(a)." The 9 government respectfully requests that this clerical error be 10 corrected pursuant to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 36 which 11 provides that a court may "at any time correct a clerical error in a 12 judgment . . . arising from oversight or omission." Fed. R. Crim.
13 Pro. 36. The government makes this request because it will allow the 14 California State Department of Justice Sex Offender Tracking Program
15 to properly assess the subject for sex offender registration.

16
17 Respectfully submitted,
